Why study in regional Australia?

- A large percentage of our students move away from home, so students say they become each other's families
- Cost of living is significantly lower than capital cities
- Our relaxed lifestyle means you have more time to focus on your studies, as well as fitting in work and social life
- It's easier to make friends with locals and become part of the community
- Our regional towns are safe and people are generally very friendly
- Students find meaningful part time work
- The uniquely Australian environment and wildlife are right on your doorstep
